

	Definition:	Access Rights:	Training required:
 <h1 data-bbox="357 114 685 333">Service Dogs</h1>	A dog trained to assist a person with a disability.	Any place the public is allowed when accompanying handler (as outlined in the Americans with Disabilities Act).	Extensively trained to perform tasks to mitigate handler's disability.
 <h1 data-bbox="338 409 705 616">Therapy Animals</h1>	An animal that is trained to provide comfort for people in an approved facility.	Any facility that grants permission.	Temperament testing, basic obedience, and additional commands expected, but not required by law.
 <h1 data-bbox="280 709 734 1026">Emotional Support Animals</h1>	An animal that provides comfort and emotional support for its owner.	Housing units and airplanes (as outlined in the Fair Housing Act and Air Carrier Access Act).	General manners expected, but not required by law.